PAY YOUR DEBTS.

A merchant in Whitwell asked us recently, "Why don't editors and preachers, the men who say things, say something about paying debts? There is lots of good, solid christianity in paying debts, and if one party defrauds a merchant, the man who pays simply has to foot the bill for both, or the merchant in due process of time will go to the wall."

The merchant reasoned very correctly. THE STORE KEEPER MUST CHARGE AN EXTRA PER CENT. FOR LOSSES FOR BAD DEBTS. This is under the credit system now existing, and thus the honest, hard-working and scrupulous buyer has to stand the losses occasioned by the non-paying propensities of his brother man.

And we cannot blame the merchant either. If he was to refuse you credit there would be a pretty considerable row, and under the stern demands of competition, he would soon be left behind in the race. This is especially true of the merchant doing business in a small place.

It fact, IT IS A CONSTANT FIGHT for the average merchant to keep collections up, and it is a wonder that many of them continue in business as long as they do.

Paying your debts is a considerable part of civilization and christianity, and we trust no News reader is guilty of defrauding a merchant. The love you are supposed to have towards your fellow men demands that you PAY YOUR JUST DEBTS.

It may not seem particularly meritorious to you to do so, but you can bet your bottom dollar it is a duty you owe to your fellowmen.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found notice of the candidacy of Capt. John W. Morton for Secretary of State. The Captain has filled his office faithfully and well, and deserves re-election, if for no other reason than that he has been attentive to the duties of the office. We trust he will receive the careful consideration of the voters when the battle of ballots is being promoted, and the candidates lined up.

SHOOK COLLEGE OPENS.

Exercises Held Monday With Increased Attendance.

TRACY City, Tenn., Sept. 3.—The school at Shook College opened Monday under the most favorable circumstances for many years. There were between 300 and 400 students present, and many parents came out to the opening exercises. Short addresses were delivered by W. G. Dillon, former Principal; Jeff D. Fults, County Superintendent; J. D. Wiley and W. E. Byers, members of the Board of Education. The faculty is composed of the following teachers: J. D. Northcutt, Principal; J. D. Farris, Mrs. Maggie R. Sharp, Misses Hattie M. Finney, Lelia Neam, Ethel Hampton and Maud Dealins.

The indications are that this will be one of the most successful years in the history of the school.

Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactures J. P. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by J. P. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c a bottle. LITTLE COLLIER BOY.

I am a little collier boy,
Hard working all the day,
From early morn till late at night,
No time have I to play.
Down in the bowels of the earth,
Where no bright sunlight shines,
You'll find me busy at my work,
A white slave of the mines.
Poor papa, he got killed one day,
And mama sits and pines,
And this is why you'll find me here,
A white slave of the mines.
When day light comes I go to work,
At night I come to bed;
The money that my labor earns,
Keeps us in meat and bread.
Poor papa, he got killed one day,
And mama sits and pines,
And that is why you'll find me here,
A white slave of the mines.
Rooke, Tenn. LONELY BOY.

Third District.

Special to the News.
We have had a marriage up here. Richard Duke married Miss Ida Barber. Mr. Duke is one among the country's best young men. We wish them a long, prosperous and happy life.

Nancy White, aged 76 years, widow of late Robt. N. White, was partially stricken with paralysis in her right side this week, but at this date is some better. Her mother settled in this country when the Indians occupied it, in 1810, and she lived to be 104 years old, and the last 20 years of her life was totally blind, and had to be led wherever she went and as she was dying her second eyesight came to her and she could tell the color of dresses the women had in the room. She had never taken a dozen doses of medicine in her life. All the old citizens remember Grandma Cunningham, the mother of Nancy White, who is widely known far and near throughout this country and hundreds of old soldiers that are yet living haven't forgotten her daring and brave feats during the late civil war, and how she succeeded in carrying dispatches through to Yankee headquarters in her month, and how she eluded the rebel officers, and rode through the lines and delivered the dispatches that defeated the enemy. She delivered them for her husband, Robt. N. White, who was a Yankee spy, that every old soldier throughout this country will to this day remember. Esq. Teague has a book printed on the life of Nancy White, with a photograph that was taken during the war of her on horseback, with her long hair hanging down riding through the rebel camps, with the war dispatches. The little sketch I know will be interesting to many old soldiers that are still living and know these facts, and will be sorry to hear her sickness, and I know we will get a good piece from some old soldier through the News along this line.

Now, just a few words to my friend, "P. W." He seems to want to criticize what I said about a drought up here, and that there wasn't but a little early corn, and that corn crops looked fine. I will admit they do look fine to a man on Gravelly Ridge. All the corn crops up to the county line are nearly all early and they are pulling fodder and topping and cutting their corn. And they say for average this year compares with last, only but little over half. Every word I said in regard to the shortage is correct. "P. W.'s" crop is short one third I will guarantee. He said that sowing turnips was the issue of the day. Now, "P. W.", I will call you down just one notch. Us good people up here do n't sow turnips. We only sow the seed. "P. W." said I charged the commissioners with trying to make a democratic gain at republican precincts. I never said that. I don't know which party it affected the worst. At Sequatchie I only tendered my sympathy to those good people who had to go to Jasper to register, both democrats and republicans alike. As to the republican gain up here, the 2nd district has two voting precincts on the east side, and one at Whitwell on the west side of the river, and all can reach these points, at the farthest only a distance of three miles. He is a strong Hick's Chapel man and heads his pieces that way. He says they are going to dig a well there. He fixes it there is no water at Burnett's Chapel and none at Hick's Chapel, by saying that they will dig a well there soon. Don't that sound funny to you. I want to state the facts in this case and end the controversy by stating that Hickory Grove and Hick's Chapel school houses have both got everlasting springs at each place, and need no needs any well, and I will be glad to furnish proof of this fact to anyone living away that don't know. I will quit this subject by saying that I am highly in favor of Hickory Grove, Hick's Chapel, or Looney's Chapel, and am perfectly satisfied and got no kick to make against either place, whatever. The decision of the board of education in this matter will be mine. Now, Mr. "P. W." I don't wish for you just now to become a critic up here. Wait until we can get in touch with other leading correspondents, and then come on with your criticisms.

There was an all around fight last Sunday between the fair sex. Four ladies fought with clubs, fence rails, pulled hair, mashed one another's mouths with their fists, on the road from school and they were very much skinned up and bloody after the battle. They were of the Cherokee Indian tribe and their forefathers used to reside on the Cherokee Indian Reservation, and when Cherokee blood is at a high pitch it is bad. Young men, you had better quit and take down your sign and give over your belt.

There was a little boy had an order from a negro the other day to a certain store for only 30c, and the clerk asked the boy whose son he was. The little boy told them and when they found out that his father was a union man they refused to pay the boy after the darker had charged on the book to him, and the boy lost the produce he sold the negro. Now, here is what I have got to say on that subject. A man that takes 30c through his prejudice and malice, from a little innocent boy, will take $20 from a man and all he wants is a chance. Every man steals according to his calibre. The calibre of a man that will steal little things is .32. A man that will steal a sheep or a hog worth $5 to $10 is .32. A man that will steal a cow or horse or mule is a .38. A man that will rob a company, rob a bank, forge a check and defraud the state or National Government out of a few thousand is a .44. Larceny is hereditary. It's in the blood and runs in generations of people, and if you fail to educate it out while in infancy, it's goodbye. Betsy Jane. There were some grown men at Whitwell Saturday that gave dose of croton oil in a watermelon to two small boys and came very near killing both of them. I guess the grand jury will do them more good than the dirty crime they perpetrated on those little boys. Both boys came very near passing away over their folly.

Now, I will close by saying excuse me as I am out of paper, and had to dwell too long feeding with "P. W." I don't want those 3rd district correspondents to begin cursing and criticising the other writers and finding fault with their pieces. We must encourage them, especially beginners, instead of attempting to criticize.

Rev. J. L. White, of Tatesville, was here this week to see his mother, Nancy White, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago.

BUNKER HILL.

Special to the News.

Now, "Mr. Representative," "Old Blue" is unable to give any views on the subject of union and non union, but will try to say a few words, as you requested me to do as I am a union man. I will try to show the difference between the two parties in religious affairs and other principles, but still they are one with God. He holds every man responsible for all his ways here on earth. When God made Adam and Eve, he made them in union with him, placed them in the garden, showing them the fruit that they might eat, and the fruit that they must not eat, but we see that they partook of the fruit that God forbid them to eat. There they transgressed the law and broke the union between them and God to please the serpent. We see that they had no union principle. They were for self, but God, with that union principle, repented and made a decree in which they might be saved. You see the two united today, drifting along down the line, Adams and Eves, non union, for self and to please the serpent. Non union men in the same way are for self and to please the companies, not for the welfare of their fellowmen and family, but just to have the name of crushing their fellowmen down to get a smile from the rich man and a frown from God.

Look how they did Bro. Cary at Dunlap and the friends he went to see. I tell you somebody has got the big head, but it is not "Old Blue."

Now, I could show you several points that God does not hold to non union principles. Not one to the contrary, and I defy the man to find it inside the Bible, but he does hold to union and advises it all through the Bible. Now you see the union man does not hold malice against his fellow men for not being union and not doing right, but we see them trying every day to get them to see the condition into which they are drifting. They are transgressing the law of God by doing the union men as they do. A union man in principle is a man that wants every man to share alike. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Love your fellowman as yourself. If all nonunion men would do that with a free heart to his fellow men, in one month there would not be any nonunion places and God would bless them and they would prosper. I tell you, brothers, on both sides, come together as brothers before something worse is wrought about. If there is not something done pretty soon to settle the strife between labor and capital, inside of five years there will be a destruction of some kind take place, for the people are divided. Father is divided against son, and son against father, and the non union is the cause of it, for they hold to the money power and work against the interest of labor and what God has commanded them to do. Therefore they have broken the union between themselves and God, as Adam and Eve did, and they can't stand. Love is the best thing to apply to it, brotherly love. Don't get mad at a man for being nonunion in belief. Love him, show him his errors. Show him how he is traveling the road to destruction.

I am like a man said to me some years ago, talking of the people that own land and how some of them were selling it and selling the mineral right when their children needed it. He said it was like the father eating the crumbs and feeding his children the crust, or drinking the milk and giving them the whey. He said it showed that a man cared nothing for his child nor the will of God. I am the same way by nonunion. It does not mean good will to each other, nor the good of any one but self, and regards not the will of God. And the Bible tells us so. It means to crush down, not to build up, even crushing the infant and taking his rights, and placing him in the hands of the money power to handle him as he will. This is true and if the shoe fits wear it. If it don't fit it belongs to that other man.

Editor News:

My pencil's bad, my paper worse, Almost enough to make me curse, or come as near as the Editor did about the registration in Marion county.

Now, I'll tell you what I guess. The voters feel a good deal as I do about this registration business. I had all the notice that it would have been possible to give me, but the secret is I don't feel interest enough to register if the book was brought to me.

Well, some political trickster says, "Why?" with his eyes wide open, like he was very much astonished. Well, I'll try to tell you why if you will read what I say.

First, I don't see the necessity of a registration in rural districts.

Second, if I ever cast a ballot in my life that proved to be of any benefit to me, either before or after, I never was able to see it.

Third, And here's the bomb. I believe it is next to impossible to elect a man to any office with perfectly pure and honorable motives; one who will do his whole duty for the people he represents as best he can, and in the event you do happen to find a man of this calibre, he is so overwhelmed with the evil or unwholesome galleys that he can't give any relief. I believe we would get along just as well with the government if elections were held as our forefathers held them.

The only difference I see is that the registration might be of some value in cities, but to make a long story short, your "Uncle Joe" will never register in order to vote, neither do I expect to ever cast another ballot, under any circumstances, for wherever either one of the political parties has the power to hold all offices, there the grafters grow fat, another pet name for stealing, and it would be a good thing if all Democrats would stay at home on next governor's election and just get behind a tree and listen. I can almost hear the weeping and wailing in the Democratic ranks.

Some say there is no use to turn one evil loose and take hold of another, but I believe it is better sometimes. You see the Republican party would try to do their stealing when you was n't looking, or rather they would steal and not rob. The only difference in stealing and robbing, is one is done when you don't see and the other is done when you do see.

Oh, I am glad that there was such light registration and if no one had registered in Marion County I would have rejoiced while the Editor said dad lam the dad lam election commissioners for not giving proper notice.
